

ALABAMA EAS PLAN

Effective July 1st, 2011 all Alabama radio and television stations along with all cable television systems in the state will be required to adhere to the following EAS monitoring assignments.

This supersedes any other assignments you may have been following. Should you have any technical problems receiving the required stations contact the ABA EAS coordinator Larry Wilkins larrywilkins@charter.net.

The Federal Communications Commission requires all participants to monitor two (2) sources. In Alabama those sources are as follows.

Monitor Source #1 Alabama Public Television Network

Participants should monitor the nearest APT transmitter.

Present rules required that all participants receive and log the reception of the Required Weekly Test (RWT) from both sources.

Participants are also required to receive and relay the Required Monthly Test (RMT) from one of the sources. The reception and relay of the RMT should also be logged.

Each week participants should transmit and log their own Required Weekly Test.

The Chief Operator of the station is required to review and sign this log weekly to ascertain that all test were received, relayed and/or transmitted correctly.
